WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, Breezy Paragraphs Telling The Happenings in the Village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

By Peter M. Herold

Joe Bova says: "The tramp has settled the labor question."

Good home grown and sprayed winter apples are selling at $1 a bushel.

Miss Rhona Eyster and Miss Ruth Smedley were visitors in Salem Monday evening.

Mrs. Frank Heckert of Salem visited Sunday at the home of her father, Thomas Heaton.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Walsh of Lisbon were Sunday guests at the home of E. B. Lewis and wife.

The young man wearing a bow on the back of his hat is still at large with the girl who wears an X-ray shirt. More street lamps have been installed in this village during the past week, giving us the best service we have ever had.

Walter Brothers was here from Cleveland Monday when on his way to Georgia to take charge of some electrical machinery.

Women have the lawful right to vote for members of the school board next Tuesday. The privilege will not occur again for two years.

Henry Calvin, Henry Lehman, Jonas Knopp and Mrs. Margaret Stouffer loaded a car of potatoes here Saturday at 60 cents per bushel.

Charley Sheen brought the hind quarters of a muton to town Saturday, and Mrs. Viola Baker's boarders pronounced it "very good."

The Socialists of Washingtonville will have a village ticket in the field at next Tuesday's election, and they expect to sweep the platter clean.

The man who spends $10 for a Teddy bear should not expect paying 70 cents a bushel for apples and potatoes, nor object to the high cost of living.

There is some talk of restoring the noon and afternoon trains on this branch of the Erie. A petition in that direction from all along the line would not be out of the way.

Prepare your turkeys, chickens and the customary trimmings, for President Wilson and the almanacs have designated the last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving day.

Now, that the town hall has been so tastefully decorated inside, it would not be surprising to find a coronet at the east end and build an addition to the west end suitable for a ticket office and a storm porch.

The following delegates represented the Sunday schools of this village in the S. S. convention at Youngstown on Tuesday and Wednesday: Mrs. Frank Paisley, Miss Rhoda Bosser, Miss Muriel Dalrymple, Andri Woods and Mark Klingensmith from the Methodist school, and Misses Bessie Weikart, Marie King, Freda Paisley, Ross Davis and W. E. Roller from the Lutheran school. Revs. Earl Lea and L. W. Gross were also in attendance, besides others who were not delegates.

The North End football team of Salem played here Sunday afternoon, scoring 7 to 15 in favor of Washingtonville. Star plays were made in the home team by Spear, Mathey, Fieldhouse and Luma. The weather was a little cool, yet about right for a spirited game. Our eleven were encouraged by a large crowd of rooters who cheered lustily whenever a good play was made. The North Ends played here last Sunday and lost to our boys 13 to 6, yet they take defeat quite philosophically, probably more so than the fellow at the other end who writes it up for publication. Our team is a husky bunch of good-natured fellows, and the only athletic aggregation we have to boast of at present, as most of the first team have gone away to seek employment and cannot be summoned here on short notice.

The Swanee River Male Quartette (colored) gave the first number of our lecture course to a crowded house Friday night. They did not pull off any new stunts, for the old plantation songs were written by white men and are not supposed to be changed since the passage of the 15th amendment, but they all played their parts well and were frequently encored. Their instrumental music was fairly good and the bass singer was the best we ever heard. The next number will be a monologue, December 4. The local management has already sold enough tickets to more than pay for the entire course besides the single admissions at the first entertainment. The entire proceeds of the coming four numbers will be invested in books for the school library. Prof. J. L. Gray and his corps of willing workers are to be complimented for the success of their efforts.

F. C. B.—The K. of P. county convention held in the Washingtonville town hall last Thursday night drew a large crowd from nearly every lodge in Columbiana county, estimated at more than 400 persons, including the Pythian Sisters. The uninitiated took in the doings from the outside, as there was no "unwritten work" going on within. The exercises began by singing the opening ode used in the lodge. This was followed by the invocation and the address of welcome by Rev. L. W. Gross of the Lutheran church. The response was made by Representative C. A. White of Lisbon. The Washingtonville band and O. P. Moore's orchestra furnished the music with assistance of a cornetist and orchestra traps from Niles. Solos were rendered by Misses Helen Thrope, Mercedes Gilbert of the Pythian Temple. The principal address of the evening was made by Past Grand Commander James H. Walker of Cleveland and it was well received. Charles J. Deckman of Malvern, Carroll county, C. C. of Ohio; Spence Wallace, F. G. of Steubenville, and others spoke encouragingly of the workings of the order. A bounteous lunch was served and the younger folks danced until midnight. The district officers pronounced the meeting a decided success and were well pleased with their courteous treatment here. It was decided to hold the first lodge party in First National lodge in Lisbon early in November.

D. R. Lehman was in town on Tuesday with 51 bushels of potatoes for shipment.

As election day falls on Tuesday, the village council will meet the Monday night before.

Section 5056 Ohio laws regarding elections require that the polls be opened at 5:30 and closed at 6.

R. B. Maxwell and his force of plasterers are at work upon the big contract at the Lisbon infirmary.

Matt Moss has been confined to his room for a week with the grip and looks rather worse of the wear.

There are from one to three hats in the political ring for every office to be filled in this village next Tuesday.

Lincoln and Lee temperance societies of a literary nature will be held in all the churches on the second Sunday in November.

Dr. Cowan went to Youngstown on Wednesday; but whether to attend the county S. S. convention or upon business of his own, he did not say.

Carl Muir has broken the local record by attending school six years without missing a day. We will be pleased to publish more such records.

Put the Erie "local" on such a schedule as to give us another mail and passenger train each way per day, and the public will cease to kick.

It appears by the Youngstown papers that Raymond Lewis was denied a divorce and that his wife was given alimony and custody of their little boy.

Rev. L. W. Gross is attending Sunday school convention in Youngstown this week. He will hold preaching services here next Sunday forenoon and evening.

A. P. Sandies in a recent address said that only a small per cent of the girls at the Delaware institution and of the boys at the Lancaster institution came from the farm.

George Hall's home was quarantined last week against doubtful cases of diphtheria, but a timely dose of anti-toxin administered by Dr. O. A. Rhodes removed all doubt and the quarantine has since been lifted.

Judge John H. Fimple of Carrollton is holding court in Lisbon this week. He is a close student of law and a hard worker upon the cases submitted for his judgment, so much so that few exceptions are taken to his rulings.

The orchestra dance given by the Dynamo club in town hall Saturday night is said to have been a success, despite the rain. The turkey trot, the tango and the bunny hug have not been danced this village, and may be guaranteed for closer inspection.

Abacadabra is a dictionary word once used in spelling schools; but now, like Teddy's political party, has gone into inequitable desuetude, or words tantamount thereto. Corn-growing boys and congressmen go to Washington without that word upon their lips.

Fires of supposed incendiary origin are on the increase in Columbiana county; another one occurred Monday morning south of Lisbon. Salem blood hounds were ordered to the scene, but owing to rainy weather the fire was lost when crossing the Y. & O. track.

Mrs. A. L. Taylor received word last week from Theford, Neb., announcing the death and burial of her brother, Harvey Felcht on the 16th of October. His age was 41 years. He was survived by his widow, but had no children. Deceased formerly resided in this village.

All the Granges thus far heard from are "unalterably opposed to the short ballot and small legislature amendments to the constitution and in favor of dry territory and urges that the initiative measure prohibiting the shipment of liquor into all dry territory of the state be supported."

Hon. Joseph I. Brittain, formerly of East Palestine has just been promoted by President Wilson from the position of American consul at Prague, Bohemia, to the consular generalship at Coburg, Germany. The place is two grades higher than Prague and carries with it an increase of $1,000 in salary.

After next Wednesday there will be one-half less saloons in Washingtonville, and one-third less in Ohio. The Anti-Saloon League wants them all eliminated, and hopes to recruit enough evicted saloonkeepers to put in a "black eye." The theory of appointing was all fought out between Jefferson and Hamilton in 1800, and Jefferson and the people won. The people want to choose their servants and not for short terms.

Hon. Percy Tellow of Washingtonville will be a candidate for the republican nomination as congressman in the new Sixteenth district, which includes Columbiana, Jefferson, Harrison and Belmont counties, at the next primary election, according to the latest advice. He is one of the ablest representatives from Columbiana county, and was a delegate to the state constitutional convention. He is a district official of the United Mine Workers of America.

Immediately following Epworth League services Sunday night, Rev. Earl Lea explained the duplex envelope plan of contributing to the church; then recommended that all voters present vote for the anti-shiping bill and against the short ballot; and announced that in two weeks there will be appropriate literary exercises along anti-saloon lines. After these preliminary remarks Rev. Lea preached upon the subject of the ancient "Cities of Refuge," with their application to the Rock of Ages under the Christian dispensation. The speaker's parallel was complete, clothed in good logic, closing the services by the congregational singing of the old and appropriate hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul, let me to thy bosom fly."

Mrs. Laura Grim was in Canfield Wednesday.

A flock of wild geese passed over this village Wednesday morning going southward.

There was no work at the Millville mines Wednesday on account of the fan being out of commission.

Mrs. T. C. Slack of Allegheny, Pa., spent Sunday here with her sisters, Mrs. David and James Weikart.

A fair-sized crowd from here braved the weather Wednesday night and went to Salem to see the play "Within the Law."

There is talk of holding a local option election in Leetonia. Might as well talk of voting Cincinnati and Washingtonville dry.

Something in the way of a hallowe'en parade should be pulled off here Friday night, then arrest those who wilfully destroy property.

O. P. Moore has been among the rural voters of Salem township a few days this week presenting his claims for township clerk, and the indications are that his "fences" are in good condition.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson was overcome by a fainting attack Wednesday morning and for a time her recovery appeared uncertain. Dr. Rhodes was summoned and applied the usual restoratives.

Mrs. C. Dubbs gave a party Tuesday evening and received 16 of her friends at her home on East Main street.

There is a jolly good time was had playing games, while piano and vocal selections by Misses Ellen Lewis of Washingtonville and Elsie Bare of this city were well received. Mrs. Dubbs served a three-course lunch.

Salem News.

It is reported that the Erie railroad company will begin construction to run a work-train between this village and Lisbon on schedule time for the accommodation of miners who work at the West Pittsburgh mines. About 20 miners from Lisbon work at West Pittsburgh and the number here will likely increase when work slackens at home. This also applies to Deltona.

Word reaches here from Lisbon that Benjamin Booth, Jr., of Washingtonville, wants the court to partition the estate of his father the late Benjamin Booth, Sr., whose death occurred several years ago. Booth claims to be entitled to one-fifth interest in the estate of his father, and the action was filed against Mr. Ewing and other heirs to the estate. It is asked that three properties in Washingtonville be divided between the parties to the action.

Chas. DeJanel, er, and wife entertained the following relatives at Sunday dinner: Mrs. G. W. Seichel and sons Charles and Ensign, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. C. O. Stephens, Mrs. Harry King and Miss Toots DeJanel all of New Castle; Miss Derta Graham, Carl Beachie and Albert Graham of Cleveland, and Messrs. Walter, Gilbert and Wilbert DeJanel of High street, this village. And if there were any more, they escaped our chef's notice. Mrs. Hannah DeJanel's cooking can draw a full table at any time without blowing the whistle.

Editors of the Leetonia Steel corporation, a $2,000,000 corporation, are incorporating an involuntary petition in bankruptcy in the federal court at Cleveland on Monday. The liabilities of the concern are said to be in excess of $1,600,000, a single mortgage in Pittsburgh aggregating that amount. The company had previously admitted insolvency in a suit brought against it, and is at present in the hands of a receiver. Within a month the case will be heard before referee in bankruptcy at Lisbon. This is a hard blow upon our sister village, as well as upon the stockholders in Washingtonville who have more than $3,000 paid in stock.

The second annual reunion of the descendants of the late General Jacob B. Roller was held Sunday at the home of C. E. Roller in Lisbon. There were 55 members of the Roller family present from all parts of the country and the day was spent in a social manner. The reunion is held on Sunday nearest to the birthday of the late general, who was born in Columbiana county and lived all his life in this vicinity. He was 95 years old when he died, some twenty years ago, and is buried in Oakland cemetery west of Washingtonville. He was the father of the late Simon Roller who lived near the cemetery, and of W. A. Roller who resides at Millville.

By a verdict rendered by the jury in common pleas court at Lisbon on Wednesday, the Ohio branch of the Salvation army, with headquarters in Cleveland, will receive the estate of the late James K. Shell, of East Palestine, which will amount to about $8,500. Shell suicided in East Palestine in January, 1912, and by his will left his estate to his mother, Elizabeth Shell, during her lifetime, and after her death to the Salvation army. Mrs. Shell is now dead, and a brother, Alfred Shell, filed an action against Mr. K. Myes, administrator, to have the will declared void. There was no testimony offered when the case was called, and Judge Moore directed the jury to return the verdict holding that the will in court was the last will and testament of the deceased. The Salvation army gave the surviving brother $1000 and he did not further contest the will.

The following sensible editorial is taken from last Saturday's issue of The Catholic Universe published in Cleveland: "It appears evident from figures obtained from the license commissioners that a great many saloons in Ohio will not obtain licenses in the different counties of the state. To be exact 2647 saloons in the state will soon have to go out of business. Nine hundred saloons in Cuyahoga county will not receive licenses to carry on their business. Cleveland, however, need not be very dry and not as dry as we would like to see it, with 1258 saloons in this city and a population of 329,236. Half the saloons in Toledo are to be abolished; in Cincinnati and Hamilton county the total elimination will be 541. The entire state of Ohio will have 5,328 saloons. The number of saloons at present in Cuyahoga county is 2186. We all trust that those to be eliminated will be put out on just and good grounds, and not from any partiality or vindictiveness."
